6. NEW BUSINESS

- a. Introduction of Parks Supervisor Greg Lund

Greg Lund introduced himself to the group and explained his new role in the Parks and Recreation Department. He previously worked in the Public Works Department and was promoted to the Parks Supervisor after the retirement of Tom Schuster. Lund discussed some of the activities he works with including the Living Legacy Tree Planting that occurs in May. It will likely be at the Family Resource Center this year. More information to follow. Commissioners had a chance to ask questions.

b. Recreation Coordinator Stephanie Baumann

Stephanie Baumann gave a tour of the Steeple Center prior to the meeting. Commissioners had a chance to ask questions. The Youth Commissioners who were at the Steeple Center tour shared their experience and take-aways with the others who were not present for the tour.

c. Leadership Lesson – Topic of the Month: Why Reflective Leadership

Foster asked that the Youth Commissioners to share and discuss their favorite leadership quote from this month's lesson. Commissioners were asked to submit their leadership sheet on "Why Reflective Leadership."

d. Youth Commission Recruitment

Commissioners were given applications and reminded that they need to reapply if interested in serving during the next term. They were also asked to assist with recruitments and were given additional applications to hand out to others they think may be interested in the Youth Commission.

e. Formation of Attendance Subcommittee

Chair Kenninger offered to contact the Commissioners who have missed more than 3 meetings to see if they were able to continue serving on the Commission. .

f. Roundtable Discussion

Youth Commission members shared their activities and plans including band, college tours, spring break, and upcoming vacations.

7. REPORTS

a. Commission Member Reports

Discussion continued regarding planning for the Spring Event with Seniors in the Community. This event is being led by Vice Chair Thiagarajan. A decision was made for each Commissioner to make 3 or 4 cards each to be distributed to the Memory Care Unit. Commissioners should bring the cards to the next Youth Commission meeting and Commissioner Jacobsen will drop off at TheRosemount.
