- a. Introduction of Community Development Director Adam Kienberger

Adam Kienberger introduced himself to the group and explained his role as the Director of Community Development. He discussed the department and the many functions within. Kienberger shared his background, including his education, work experiences and his career path.

Kienberger explained various projects happening within Rosemount, discussed the role of the Planning Commission and Port Authority, and answered questions from the Youth Commissioners.

*At 4:18 p.m. Vice Chair Burman needed to leave the meeting and assigned Commissioner Maskel to run the remainder of the meeting in her absence.

b. Leadership Lesson – Topic of the Month: “Leadership is Like…”

Weisensel asked that the Youth Commissioners to share and discuss this week’s leadership lesson. In addition, he challenged the group to find the Teddy Roosevelt quote on leadership that they think he (Weisensel) likes best.

c. Roundtable Discussion

Youth Commission members shared their summer plans, spring break, and school activities. Foster thanked the group for the generous response to the St. Patrick’s Day card event. Over 50 cards were created and collected. Commissioner Jacobsen will drop them off at The Rosemount after today’s meeting.
